USE VOTING MACHINE

J. J. Williams while in San Francisco took a great interest in the voting machines that are to be used in the coming election for the first time. Mr. Williams thinks it a great scheme. Circulars are sent out to every voter with photographs of the machine and directions how to vote a straight or split ticket. Besides this, machines are located in every precinct so that every voter can practice before election day and be certain that his vote will be properly recorded. "The only trouble," said Mr. Williams, "is that a great number will keep putting off their practice with the machine till the last minute and then may get left on the last day when the crowd comes and wants to learn how. The method, however, of voting a straight ticket is simple, and if a man makes a mistake this year on his vote, he'll be sure to learn all the details before the next election."

St. Petersburg, Oct. 17.—The news from Kuropatkin is more reassuring. The situation is still critical and there is no sign of the ending of the battle. Kuropatkin is holding the Japanese back with the center, and his right is fighting the enemy's left near Tumliling.

HANA'S RECEIVER REPORTS.

Receiver E. A. Mott-Smith of Hana plantation files preliminary report before Judge Robinson, stating that he has arranged with M. S. Grinbaum & Co. to finance receiver's paper on the approximate estimate of cost as follows: August, 1904, $621.90; September, $9,950; October, $9,950; November, $12,950.

On September 22 the outstanding bond indebtedness was $160,000. The amount of capital stock paid in was $427,717; present authorized capital is $5,000,000 in $100 shares; outstanding accounts due agents equal $373,428.50. Says the receiver: "There are certain leases held by the Hana Plantation company which are of no value; I request instructions as to the payment of rent on such leases."

The trial balance sheet made on August 25 shows a deficiency of $121,984.94. The report is set for hearing on the 29th instant.

REPUBLICANS ENTHUSIASTIC.

The Republican meeting at Queen and Ward streets last night was the biggest meeting yet held in Kakaako. There was a big and enthusiastic crowd present and the speeches lasted until after 11 o'clock. The people stayed to the finish.

J. C. Quinn presided at the meeting. Addresses were made by the three Republican candidates for the Senate, John C. Lane, E. P. Bishop and J. M. Dowsett. A number of the men on the Representative ticket also spoke. The Home Rulers have been diligent in that pack of the woods, but the showing made last night indicates that the Ninth Precinct will go solidly Republican.
